The Prime Minister Liakat Ali khan trickily opposed the amendment to use bangle alongside Urdu in the assembly. Despite of his refusal still there were majority people who talked in Bengal in Pakistan and it was about 56 % where as only 3% people in Pakistan were talk in Urdu. In West Pakistan the Bengali Muslim were considered socially inferior because of not practicing North Indian Islamic Culture. They were not considered fully fledge Pakistani because of their Bengalines. When students in East Pakistan came to know about the plan to make Urdu as a National language they held meetings and demonstration and then formed first language action committee in 1947. In 1948, Mohammad Ali Jinnah visited Dhaka and addressed to a large audience that Bengali Language could be used in the Pakistan but he clearly stated that there will be only one National Language in Pakistan and it was to be Urdu. Because without having one state language no nation can remain tied up together solidly. The language movement which had declined after 1948 reignited when the new prime minister of Pakistan Khwaja NazimUddin came into Dhaka and addressed a large crowd at the central green stating that East Pakistan could decide what would be their provincial language but Urdu would be Pakistan State language. Student responded it with very angry reaction and the students of Dhaka University and the number of organization called a Protest meeting. The meeting sharply rejected the decision and called a general strike on 21st February 1952. The government imposed a ban on this strike and imposed curfew. But that couldn't be able to stop the students. Students from all institution gather together in the premise of Dhaka University and then started marching and shouting slogans. The campus gates were armed with policeman and when they passed the campus gate police used tear gases and fired into the crowd. For that many were injured and 5 peoples including 9 years old boy were killed. Over the next few days more killing and arrest occurred. 4. Gonotontri Dol

Purpose:

The main purposes of United Fronts were that there were no political strong political party and that's why they formed this United Front to fight against the Muslim League. In 1954 the Pakistani govt. called for an election and at that election Awami Muslim league got maximum vote rather than Muslim league. United front introduced 21 point included Bangla as state language, rights of the peasant and workers and Nationalize Jute sector.

5. Discuss about the impacts of 1952 movement on the War of Liberation in Bengal in 1971.

Answer:

After the declaration by Mohammad Ali Jinnah in 1948 that Urdu would be the only state language of Pakistan and again reigniting the situation by Khawja Nazimuddin had a very negative impact among not only the students but also the general people. This led students to go on a strike and violated the curfew that was imposed by the government. There was an open fire by the policeman which killed five people and injured many. Over the past few days many more killings were done. Despite of these over killing mass people still had the spirit to fight against the government.

In 1954 the Pakistan Government called an election and the main purpose of the election was to elect a new president. At that time Maulana Abdul Hamid Khan Vashani formed Jukto Front along with 3 political parties and the parties were

- Krishok Shromik Party (K.S.P)
- Nezam - E - Islam
- Gonotontri Dol

In this election Awami Muslim League got majority seats in the parliament. Reason behind the win Jukto front was because the total individual parties supporter came together to support one party which made them to get the majority vote.

Then in 1956 Pakistan became an independent republic and there was a half hearted compromise between two divergent forces. Another outcome was the quick erosion of support for and collapse of the Proja coalition ministry. Although a group of radical Awami leaguers had opposed the constitution, it was under the new constitution that the Awami League will have both the power of east Bengal and the centre. After that Suhrawardy became the prime minister. So it was the first time when East Bengal gains some access to Pakistan's Power structure.

In 1958 AYUB khan established the concept of Basic Democracies Order (BDO) in the constitution. According to this theory there will be 40000 people from the East Pakistan and 40000 people from West Pakistan will be elected by the local people and this 80000 people will elect the president of Pakistan. - Point 4:- Federated Unit to have the power of taxation
- Point 5:- Separate accounts on foreign exchange earnings
- Point 6:- Separate parliamentary force for each unit

After that Sheikh Mujibur was arrested and he was sent to the jail.

In 1968 the Pakistan government give a case against Sheikh Mujib along with 28 persons were arrested in this conspiracy case. Sheikh Mujib was already in prison and he was charged with master minding conspiracy with India but at the end the tribunal couldn't establish their claim. Then in 1969, 22 January Sheikh Mujib and other opposition leaders got released from the case due to the mass upsurge.

In 1969 Mass upsurge movement was also known as Anti- Ayub movement.

When the most populist politicians still in the jail the anti regime movement began to show signs of indolence. In 1969 student action committee came out with eleven points which was incorporated with the six point program. Those eleven points mainly included demand for reformation of educational system, adequate wages for working class, reduction of land taxes for the peasantry and withdrawal of Agartala Conspiracy case and release of Sheikh Mujib and other political prisoners.

In 1970 Yahya held the first general election in Pakistan on the basis of adult franchise. In an expression of solidarity Awami League won all but two of the 162 seats allocated to the province in the national Assembly. They also vanquished all opposition in the provincial legislature capturing 288 seats out of total 300 declared seats. The Peoples Party of Pakistan came out with 81 seats out of 138 seats in West Pakistan. But the Pakistan was still not in favor of giving the power to Awami League.

6. What was Basic Democracies Order (BDO):

BDO: The basic definition of BDO is to elect president and there will be 40000 people from the East Pakistan and 40000 people from West Pakistan will be elected by the local people and this 80000 people will elect the president of Pakistan. Based on this BDO in 1962 AIUB Khan formed another constitution. 1962- Ayub Khan formed the 2nd constitution. By this time he legalized BDO.

side they brought the charge of high treason for involvement in secessionist conspiracy with India but at the end the tribunal couldn't establish their claim. Then in 1969, 22 January Sheikh Mujib and other opposition leaders got released from the case due to the mass upsurge.
