

Pre Muslim phase

1. What is janapad?

According to Vedic literature the ancient janapads were the non-Aryans who inhabited this area much before the Aryans came to this area.

Pundra → Dinajpur, Bogra

Varendra → Rajshahi

Vanga → Dhaka, Tangail

Vangal → Barishal, coastal areas

Samatata → Comilla, Noakhali

Harikela → Chittagong, Sylhet

Gaud → Chapainawabganj

2. Short note on Sasanka.

Sasanka was a strong Hindu emperor who is known as the first independent king of Bengal. He came to power in the first half of 6th century and spread his kingdom to Gaud and Magadha. His Capital was Karnasuvarna present day Rangamati. Also, he was the first Bengali king to venture into North Indian Politics.

3. What is Matsyanyayam?

After the death of Sasanka, lawlessness existed for 100 years (650-750AD) due to absence of powerful ruling emperor, law and punishment was kept under abeyance. This period is known as Matsyanyayam. It started after the reign of Sasanka and was ended by Gopala.

4. Difference between Pala and Sena Dynasty

Sl no.	Pala Dynasty	Sena Dynasty
1	No caste system	Reintroduced orthodox caste system
2	Showed Religious tolerance	Showed Religious intolerance
3	Hindu Buddhist amity was achieved	Rivalry between Hindu Buddhist
4	Developed architectural art and practiced sculptural art	Sanskrit literature and sculptural art reached watermark

5. Muslim Dynasty with 2 contributions

- Ikhtiyar-Ud-din Muhammad bin Bakhtiyar Khilji:
 - I. The foundation of Islam was established in Bengal
 - II. Introduced silver coins depicting a cavalry man image
- Firoz Shah Dynasty:
 - I. Conquered Sonargaon and Mymensingh
 - II. Helped Hajrat Shah Jalal to conquer Sylhet.
- Iliyas Shah Dynasty:
 - I. Issued coins
 - II. Brought whole Bengal under his control
 - III. Built the famous Adina Mosque

BY HAMIDA AND AYASHA

- Jalal Uddin Muhammad Shah:
 - I. Constructed institutions in Mecca
 - II. Established relations with the ruler of Egypt
 - III. Issued coins from Pandua, Chittagong, Sonargaon, Satgaon and Faridpur.
- Hussain Shahi Dynasty (Bengali kings):
 - I. Extended the boundary and incorporated Cooch Bihar, Arakan, Orissa, Kamrup, Tripura

Chhoto sona Masjid was built at gaur

- II. Qadam Rasul Mosque
- Sher shah (mid e choley ashchhey)
 - I. Grand Trunk road
 - II. Defeated Humayun
 - III. Modernized the collection of revenue
 - IV. Introduced postal system known as ghorar dak
 - V. Reformed administration

6. Who were the Bara Bhuiyans?

The bara bhuiyans were the independent zamindars of the bhati region.

The bara bhuiyans are the former governors of the Bengal sultanate

- Isa khan
- Musa khan
- Masum khan
- Kandarpanarayan
- Raja Pratap Aditya
- Kedar rai
- Daud khan
- Uthman khan

Denied paying taxes to the Moghul Empire and that's why the Moghul empire tried to capture Bengal.

Maan Singh was appointed by Akbar, defeated daud khan and Uthman khan, killed kedar rai

Jahangir appointed Islam Khan Chishti, who killed Uthman khan

7. Siraj Ud Dowla:

8. Battle of palassy:

- Reason:
 - I. high ambition of British East India company r
 - II. breaking laws by British east India company
 - III. British east India company did not send any gift to nawab Siraj Ud Dowla during his coronation

- IV. shah shuja allowed the British to conduct their business in Bengal but sirajuddoulah did not agree with this policy and ordered the company to ask for his permission as well but the company did not pay any heed to him
- result:
 - I. nawab sirajuddoulah lost the battle which ended the independent ruling power of nawab
 - II. east India company established strong position over Bengal and ruled for next 190 years
 - reasons of losing the battle
 - I. palace conspiracy and betrayal of Chief Generals
 - II. Lack of proper decision-making ability of the Nawab
9. Battle of buxar:
The battle of buxar is more significant in the history than battle of Palassy as it was fought between the combined forces of the Nawab of Awadh, Nawab of Bengal and the Mughal King Shah Alam two against the British East Company at Buxar on 23rd October 1764. The company won by deceiving Mir Qasim.
10. Famine of 1770
- Reason:
 - I. Over taxation of the company
 - II. Back to back natural calamities
 - Effect:
 - I. The dual system was abolished
 - II. About $\frac{1}{3}$ rd. of Bengal's population died
11. Impact of colonial rule:
- Education system improved
 - Communication system improved
12. Permanent settlement :Like the Dual System it was a failed experimentation as well .The permanent settlement act is a tax collection system where the British imposed a fixed amount of tax which would never change and made the zamindars the owners on land and they had to pay taxes to the British by the last sunset of the year otherwise their land would be auctioned
13. Sunset law: The Zamindars had to pay the fixed amount of tax by the last sunset of the year otherwise their land would be auctioned.
14. Subinfeudation :Since the tax imposed by the British were too high ,many traditional zamindars failed to give tax by the last sunset of the year ,their land were auctioned off and at that moment only the Kolkata based businessmen had enough money to buy those lands .However ,the new landlords were Kolkata based businessmen ,so they appointed their intermediaries to take care of the land and collect taxes ,and Bengal produced so much wealth that sometimes the intermediaries could appoint their own intermediaries and thus a system developed where to reach the actual land owners 5-6 level of intermediaries had to be passed .This whole process is known as Subinfeudation .
15. Cash crops:

BY HAMIDA AND AYASHA

- Jute
 - Tea
 - Silk
 - Sugarcane
 - Indigo
16. Effects of Cash Cropping:
- Regional specialization
 - Foreign trade link
 - Land were losing its fertility
 - Food scarcity
 - Rural farmers were being exposed to international market insecurities
17. Rise of Kolkata
- Bhodrolok class: the elite class Hindus who took up British education and British lifestyle
18. Effect of Permanent settlement Act
- Farmers lost their property rights and became mere tenants
 - Traditional zamindars had to lose their land
 - Loyal class of Hindu bhodroloks evolved
 - New institution of rule
 - Rise of Kolkata
19. Political parties in British India
- Indian National Congress
 - All India Muslim league
 - KPP
20. Movement against British rule or during British rule
- Indigo revolt (S)
 - Fakir sanyasi rebellion (UN)
 - Titumirs movement (UN)
 - Faraizi movement (S)
 - Sepoy mutiny (UN)
 - Santal rebellion
 - Pabna revolt (S)
21. Reasons behind the partition of 1905
- Development of the Muslims
 - Stop the building up of a large anti colonial movement
22. Who were against the partition of 1905?
- Zamindars
 - Kolkata press
 - Lawyers
 - Business men
23. Conflict between Hindu Muslim
- Hindus used to consider Muslims as inferior to them

- The partition gave the Muslims a chance to become developed and the Hindus were against it which made the Muslims think that the Hindus didn't want them to develop
24. Techniques used to annul the 1905 partition
- Swadeshi movement
 - Bengal terrorism /Political assassination
25. Why Muslims supported the British
- British were giving them job opportunities
26. Ashraf-Atrap: the Ashrafs were Arab, Persian or central Asian descendants and they considered themselves as the guardian of Islam in Bengal and they looked down upon the Islamic belief, ideology, lifestyle of the local converted Muslims as their lifestyle was deeply influenced by the culture of Bengal.
27. Dyarchy: the division of power between governor executive council and ministers is known as dyarchy
28. Morley Minto reform: it was primarily devised to satisfy the Moderates and the Muslim communalists.
29. Lucknow Pact: on December ,1916 the Lucknow congress held a session where the Congress, the Moderates, Extremists, home rule league and Muslim rule all concluded an agreement, which was demanding self-government for India is known as Lucknow pact.
30. Jallianwala Bagh: on 13 April 1919, there was a huge political meeting against the Rowlatt act in the Jallianwala Bagh of Amritsar which was attended by more than 1500 people who were indiscriminately massacred by the British.
31. 1943 Famine:
- The British took away all the food to feed its soldiers during WW2
 - Disruption of communication from Burma used to provide food to Bengal in time of crisis.
32. Two nation Theory: This theory was introduced by Mohammad Ali Jinnah which states that British India should be divided according to the majority of Hindu and Muslims.
33. Lahore resolution: it was for the division of India where two separate nations would be made for Hindus and Muslims. there would be two autonomous Muslim states under the one Muslim nation.
34. Cabinet mission: Last attempt to stop the partition of India where Jinnah agreed to the conditions of the British but Congress created trouble and later on it was rejected.
35. National Language Action Committee printed statements in journals and newspapers, arranged discussions, took interview of the government officials and continued the protests in various ways.
36. Tamauddin Majlish took the initiative in forming the national language action committee to give organizational structure to the demand for Bangla as a state Language of Pakistan.
37. Why Bangla was rejected and Urdu was elected as the Language of Pakistan
- Urdu is similar to Arabic, the language of Quran
 - Bangla came from Sanskrit, and since the Ramayana and Mahabharat were written in Sanskrit, the Pakistani Government labeled it as Hindu language.
38. United front (formed by, led by, and why did they win)
- Led by:
 - I. Sher e Bangla a K Fazlul Haque

- II. Maulana Abdul Hamid Khan Bhashani
 - III. Hussain Suhrawardy
 - Formed By:
 - I. Awami Muslim league
 - II. KSP
 - III. Gonotontri dol
 - IV. Nizam e Islami
 - Why did they win:
 - I. Language movement
 - II. 21-point demand
39. Constitution: A Constitution has been described as the autobiography of a nation which reflects its historical experience, rights, rules and responsibilities of the common people
- Objective → Legal-enforcement
Rules and Regulation
40. Constitution 1962 features
- "The state shall be a Republic under the name of the Republic of Pakistan."
 - Renamed East- Bengal to East Pakistan
41. 1956 Constitution Features →
- Bangla was accepted as state language
 - Pakistan was declared as an Islamic State
42. 11-point movement:
- Fourteen Demands relating to education
 - Parliamentary Democracy on the basis of universal adult franchise
 - A Federal form of Government and sovereign legislature with Federal powers to be confined to defense, foreign policy and currency;
 - sub-federation of Baluchistan, N.W.F.P and Sind regional autonomy for each Unit;
 - nationalization of banks, insurance companies, and all la industries; 6) reduction in rates of taxes for peasants
 - fair wages and bonuses to workers;
 - flood control measures for East Bengal;
 - withdrawal of all emergency laws, security acts, and other prohibitive orders;
 - withdrawal from SEATO, CENTO and Pakistan U.S. military Pacts;
 - release of all political prisoners including those under the Agartala Conspiracy Case.
43. BDO: Basic Democracy Order drafted in 1959 and implemented in 1960 was a form of presidential election, were 40 thousand people from each side that is total 80 thousand people were elected by the citizens. These 80 thousand later on would elect the president of the country.
- Criticism /problem:
 - I. Though the population of east Pakistan was higher than that of west Pakistan, the number of elective bodies were equal
 - II. There was no competitor of Ayub Khan
44. LFO stands for Legal Framework Order was documented by Yahya as the framework of the 1970 election.
45. The minister's position under dyarchy remained weak because

BY HAMIDA AND AYASHA

The governor supported the executive councilor, not the minister

The minister had to serve two masters -the governor and the legislative council.

46. Declaration of independence: by Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman at 1 AM of 26th March 1971. Re declared by Ziaur Rahman from Kalurghat Radio Station on 27th march.
47. Teliyapara documentary: On a place named Teliyapara, Major Shafiullah, Colonel Osmani and Major Khaled Musharraf prepared the first strategy of the war on a piece of paper. this is known as Teliyapara strategy.
It had 3 phases
→defensive: Building up Mukti bahini
→Equilibrium: equally distribute the trained fighters into different locations
→offensive: Full scale war
48. War strategies:
 - A large guerilla would be raised and trained
 - Regular Mukti bahini would be enlarged and divided into sectors
 - The best people from the regular force and Mukti bahini would be recruited to force a force which would launch full scale direct attacks on the Pakistani army.
49. S force Shafiullah
50. Z force: Ziaur Rahman
51. K force Khaled Musharraf
52. Sectors 11: sector 10 had no commander as it was a naval sector.
53. Irregular forces:
→kader bahini
→Mujib bahini
54. Mujibnagar govt: during a meeting in India the Indian government put forth the condition that Awami league shall form a government and only then India will help Bangladesh. thus, the mujibnagar government was formed on April 10
55. Oath taking: Baiddynathtala, Meherpur on April 17
56. Crack platoon: The guerilla group which was in charge of exploding grenade in the heart of city without getting caught
57. Pakistani collaborators: rajakars, al badr, al shams
58. Role of Pakistani collaborators
 - Revealed the location of different hiding spot of the muktibahini
 - Helped the Pakistani army in kidnapping and raping Bangladeshi women
 - Helped the Pakistani army conduct the killings of the intellectuals on 14 December
59. Why did India help Bangladesh during the war of liberation?
→Indira Gandhi had very good relation with Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman
→ideological similarities
→Humanitarian grounds
→10 million refugees were in India
60. SDG: Sustainable Development Goals
→Goals 17
→no poverty
→good health
→quality of education

- climate action
61. MDG: Millennium Development Goals
 - Goals 8
 - improve maternal health and reduce child mortality
 - achieve universal primary education
 - eradicate extreme poverty and hunger
 62. Promote gender equality and women empowerment
 63. Greatest contributors of our economy
 - Women folk specially who work in Garments
 - NGOs
 - Immigrants
 - Farmers
 64. On which sector of MDG Goals Bangladesh excelled: education, health
 65. Four ideologies of Mujib
 - nationalism
 - secularism
 - socialism
 - democracy
 66. Human Development Index: 3 indicators
 - life expectancy
 - fundamental income
 - rate of literacy
 67. Education movement
 68. Direct action day: After 2nd world war, British Direct-Action government proposed to handover the power to an interim government. Muslim league agreed with the proposal provided that later the country will be divided according to Jinnah's Two Nation Theory. But congress opposed them. So, the handover process was hanged on. To protest the stance of congress Muslim League held a general strike on 16th August, 1946 stated as " Direct Action Day". Later it turned out as a massive mass killing, which is called the "Great Kolkata Riot" and it lasted for almost one week
 - In 1946, Jinnah called on Strike this is known as "direct Action Day":
 - All Muslims came to Kolkata.
 - Almost 5000 Muslims were Killed in one week.
 - Lord Mountbatten decided to divide the nation according to the two-nation theory. Cyril Radcliff mapped India and Pakistan.
 - In 1947, ' Second partition
 69. On 16th December 1971 the Pakistani Army surrendered to the leader of the India Bangladesh joint force, General Jagjit Singh Arora
 70. In charge of Pakistani Army →Amin Abdullah Khan Niazi
 71. Bangladesh was not suitable for guerilla attack
 - The rajakars knew the areas very well and revealed the locations to the Pakistani army
 - Bangladesh is mostly plain land so there was lack of hiding place.
 72. SMR was arrested by General Osman Mitha
 73. Initial fund of the government in exile was 135 million rupees

74. Major General Sarkar → Chief Liaison Officer
- 75.
76. Our liberation strategy → Guerilla strategy
77. Who gave veto in favor of Bangladesh?
Soviet Union now Russia
78. Freedom fighters took training in → West Bengal, Bihar, Tripura, UP
79. Indian army did not want to take part in the liberation war because → the Chinese would create trouble for India on border
→ 4 divisions of the Indian army in the eastern order was engaged in meeting the demand of internal security.
80. BSF → Border Security Force
81. EPR → East Pakistan Rifles
82. EBR → East Bengal Regiment
83. In charge of Air force MAG OSMANI
84. Kader bahini by Abdul Kader Siddiqui, Mymensingh and Tangail
85. Article 70: a person elected as a member of Parliament at an election at which he was nominated as a candidate by a political party shall vacate seat if –
- Resigns from the party
 - Votes against the party in parliament but shall not thereby be disqualified for subsequent election as a member of Parliament.
86. Constitution committee: had 34 members ,1 member from the opposition
→ Tajuddin Ahmed
→ Syed Nazrul Islam
→ Razia Banu one women member
87. Features of amendment
88. Public administration is the combination of 3 things
→ the executive
→ The legislative
→ the judiciary
89. What is sustainable development ?
90. Who was the founder of Awami league?
Maulana Bhashani founded Muslim Awami league then to support secularism it was changed to Awami league